Optional tour A: Bicycle tour 3 hours (join tour)

Highlights of the tour are the exploration of Chinatown's narrow alleyways, markets and backstreets as well as the charming local areas of Thonburi.

Starting in the heart of Chinatown, our bike-ride explores its frenetic market environment. Winding through narrow alleyways, our senses come alive with the sights, sounds, and smells of a community in motion. We'll pass by shophouses selling everything from Buddhist amulets to recycled truck engines. Locals worshipping at hidden temples, ritual paper burnings, and the omnipresent spirit house display evidence of a culture centuries in the making.

Crossing the Chao Phraya River with majestic views of the city skyline behind us, we visit Thonburi, the historic third capital of Thailand. Contrasting chaotic Chinatown, peaceful elements of local Thai life abound as we cycle through diverse residential communities. Inquisitive smiles and friendly greetings reinforce the feeling we have truly left the "beaten path" and are now experiencing the REAL Bangkok.

Optional tour B: China Town walking tour- Half day with lunch (Private tour)

This tour takes you to the hidden highlights of Bangkok's Chinatown by foot. Our walking tour is relax and flexible as well as perfect for photographers.

Your guide will bring you through historic Chinatown, one of the largest and most authentic in the world. Here, Sino-Thai culture has been evolving since the beginning of the Chakri dynasty over 200 years ago. Explore alleyways and passages so small even bicycles cannot pass.

Get a behind the scenes view of life in this bustling community, where encounters with busy marketplaces, religious shrines, and smiling faces performing their daily routines will stimulate all your senses. Local food stalls are awaiting for you to try. The tour is including lunch to offer you local experience at the Chinese ambiance area.
